Thank you to the many volunteers of all ages who helped make our nation's birthday a special celebration in Sleepy Hollow. SHHA and SHCF board members and other residents put in over 200 volunteer hours to give the community 12 hours of nonstop fun, from the Fun Run to the Parade, to the anthem and flag raising, hot dog lunch, clowns, pool fun, music, grilled buffet dinner, and more music. Special thanks to Rob Osier for his leadership in organizing the parade, the Tennis Team managing the snack bar, and the Swim Team for sponsoring the lunch. Thank you to Mike Goebel who helped us to secure the band "Rhythm Drivers" for our nighttime entertainment. Lastly, a special thanks to Jan and Franklin Blackford who put many hours into preparation and orchestration to ensure we had another amazing 4th of July celebration.

Check out the stories on page 2 and 4; you will find your name or your neighbor's, for sure.

Summer Social August 16th

Join us again for a Summer Social on Friday August 16, 6:00 to 9:00 p.m. Be there for the food, beverages, and entertainment for all. Watch for the invite and volunteer sign up!

Community Center Renovation Plans Moving Forward

The design approval amendment is being reviewed in the County Planning Department. Several contractors are reviewing the design approval amendment materials now. The submittal to County Planning is a matter of public record and is posted on the Community Center page of shha.org. We could have a response in August, or it could be later. Engineers are at work on design development that will enable an updated independent cost estimate and allow general contractors to evaluate the project more closely. By mid- to late-August we expect to have the independent cost estimate and preliminary bids from contractors that may include cost-saving suggestions.

We will share what we know at that point, preview the path forward including project budget and fundraising plan, and seek your input. November is still a possible start date, a month behind our most optimistic benchmarks for starting in October, mostly because it took more time to work out site plan issues for a complete submittal to County Planning.

We are on the path described in June — planning for what the community wants and needs, and only building what we can afford. If costs increase, we will trim and prioritize and review with the community before completing bidding and permitting. We also are looking at funding beyond the amount we need to raise within the community, such as grants for solar power and battery back-up, materials and volunteer labor for non-technical work such as the CERT storage, volunteer guidance for audio visual and other special features.

Your donations and gifts in fulfillment of pledges are still very important. When we have a clear cost, path, and updated timelines for the renovation, we will ask for your support. Send your questions or ideas to shhapresident@gmail.com and I or Jan Blackford, President of the SHCF, will respond.

SHHA Board Member Jen Gauna

Jen Gauna has been a SHHA board member for the last several years and recently completed her term as Secretary. Jen played a pivotal role in helping build awareness of safety and helped initiate a program to address vegetation management in Sleepy Hollow. Jen and her family could often be seen helping to prepare for social events, fundraisers, and other events. Jen, thank you and your family for your contributions—you will be missed!

Steve Knox has Retired: Help Wanted

We need a volunteer to work approximately 5 hours a week on average, taking over the administrative parts of what Steve Knox has done until renovation begins. It's the best way we can thank Steve for 7 years of managing the building and grounds of our community center. Look at the "want ad" on page 6 and let us know what you can do.

News & Notes from Supervisor Katie Rice

Wildfire Prevention Must Be a Communitywide Effort

Great to see all the piles of brush and branches neatly assembled along neighborhood streets awaiting pick up/chip up for most recent Sleepy Hollow Fire District sponsored Chipper Day weekend. A huge “hats off” to everyone for stepping up per their own property, and applause and thanks to Sleepy Hollow Fire District board members, Rich Shortall, Tom Finn and Sharon Adams for your leadership in guiding this effort.

We are extremely fortunate here in the Hollow to have such an active, forward leaning organization not only leading/supporting our own community wildfire prevention work, but also leading and modeling community preparedness and cross agency partnership and collaboration throughout Marin.

Partnering and collaboration are key strategies of much of the work happening here in the Hollow and in greater Marin. Lessons learned from the 2017 North Bay fire and other recent fires make it clear that wildfire does not recognize jurisdictional boundaries. Hence the need for local government, fire agencies, communities across Marin to work together as we take on our wildfire challenge. It has been gratifying to see the level of cooperation, planning and commitment to work together now being exhibited in Marin. By way of example:

This spring a cross jurisdictional, multi-fire agency partnership led by FIREsafe MARIN was awarded a $1 million-dollar Cal Fire grant to help fund evacuation route clearance and fuel reduction projects in the Ross Valley. The grant provides funding for roadside vegetation work to improve access and egress along more than 55 miles of roads in seven hillside neighborhoods along the east slope of Mt. Tamalpais. The grant will also help fund other wildfire fuel reduction projects prioritized in the 2017 Community Wildfire Protection Plan.

Also launched this year, a two year partnership between Marin County Parks and the Marin County Fire Department that will fund a crew of 14 wildland firefighters for two seasons. Funding ($2.3 million in Parks/Measure A funds) for the two-year pro-

Creek Care 101! Part 3 Protecting Your Streambank

A majority of creek banks in Marin are subject to erosion, especially those on the outside bend of a stream AND those lacking vegetation such as native riparian trees where the robust root system holds the soil in place, protecting the bank. The best techniques to use, that promote a healthy riparian corridor, include soil bioengineering methods which are considered “soft engineering” that are eco-friendly and nature-based solutions to creek bank erosion. Some examples of these techniques include but are not limited to:

Willow/dogwood staking and sprigging (note: willows prefer sun and dogwoods prefer shade)

Willow/dogwood walls

Brush layering*

Willow/dogwood mattress

Laying the bank back to a 2:1 slope then vegetating it with natives*

Using large pieces of wood to deflect flows away from the toe of your bank*

These two partnership projects are not only good examples of collaboration happening here in Marin, but also of the type (and Safe Driving Campaign Coming Your Way!

How often do you see drivers in your neighborhood rolling through stop signs or speeding down the street? Or maybe talking or texting on their phones? How often do you find yourself doing the same?

Coming later this summer, the Sleepy Hollow community and the larger community of San Anselmo/Fairfax will be debuting a Back to School “Eyes Up” campaign developed through a collaborative effort of volunteers, Safe Routes, schools, towns, County, and law enforcement, with the goal of changing behavior and creating new positive driving habits. Look for safety messages in social media, signage, eblasts and more – we hope you won’t be able to miss it!

Stay tuned for more information through SHHA and if interested in being involved, please contact butterfieldcorridor.safestreets@gmail.com or nvernon@marincounty.org. We’d love to have your help in promoting safe driving!

Sleepy Hollow Celebrates July 4th

Neighbors rallied in force to celebrate July 4th. Rob Osier organized the parade and coached the rest of us to put together the day enjoyed by many hundreds. We thank all those paraded, cheered, and those who signed up and showed up to help, as well as those who just showed up with offers of help. A few we just hugged for the offer, but most were quickly handed a bowl, knife, or apron; a roll of tape, extension cord, or hammer; a stack of paper plates, box of chips, or platter of watermelon.

SHHA Board members Spencer Adams, Jan Blackford, Francois Hedouin, Scott Hintergardt, Pete Mayer, Cathy Sarkisian, and Matt Testa were at work everywhere, hauling kegs, ice, umbrellas, watermelons, meats, and more, and continued working throughout July 4th. SHCF Board members Luke Argilla, Lorraine Ferrarese, Bradley Johnson, and Ryan Nail also put in many hours July 3 and 4, and are not always recognized in the stories that follow.

Boy Scout Troop 50 sold ice cream treats for a troop fundraiser, and repeatedly pitched in to help us with other tasks. Cub Scout Pack 50 performed the flag raising and led us in the pledge of allegiance. Kelly Kurtzig sang the national anthem, once again amazing us with such an inspiring voice. Her sister Jamie Kurtzig, a California representative nationally for diabetes awareness, shared information to promote support for new and affordable treatments, including Type 1 Juvenile Diabetes. DJ Justin Newlin came early, stayed late, played family friendly tunes all afternoon, and loaned a cable to the incoming Rhythm Movers for their evening music. Lifeguards Anna Wooster and her team of Mac Bihn, Francesca Moynihan, Leo Krashanoff, Fiona Corr, and Sasha Frey, worked hard and cheerfully all day to keep the pool safe for many happy people. In all, a day and a community to be proud of.

The fun began long before July 3, when it kicked up a notch with crews for set up and decoration (Ali Sadat, Andy Witkowski, Deb Alan, Bradley Johnson, Matt Podboy, and Damon Blechen. Andy took pictures to help with our memories next time.); and food prep (John Richard, Don Briggs, Jennifer Briggs, Emory Johnson, Megan Jones, Liz MacNamara).

Quietly helping from home, the brownie and cup cake bakers delivered the goods Friday and Saturday. Thanks to Kit Argilla, Grace Carter, Emily Duffy, Jessica Fairchild, Brigid Hedouin, Gail Hutchinson, Sara Kurtzig, Dawn Mayer, Kristen Rivers, Ashley Roosevelt, Devin Smith, and Megan Webster. Morning prep the day of went smoothly thanks to Nancy Reagan, Kai Broms, Jessica Fairchild, and Paul Ferrarese.

Meanwhile, John Richard organized the fun run with 1 and 2 mile events for runners and walkers and a 5k run. He and his crew of Jennifer Richard, Tyler Magnusson, Jen Gauna, Bonnie Hoag made sure the participants were oriented, safe, hydrated, and especially that they had fun! Most of the 103 registrants cleverly failed to make their ages clear, so we won't list winners or finishers by category or time this year. We do list in a separate article the top finishers in each running event, and pairs or families who ran together and finished with almost the same times, whether in competition or support.

Swim Team veterans and other supporters showed up to handle the hot dog lunch, serving over 400 people in about 2 hours. The crack crew was anchored by Mark and July Anderson, Dave and Pat Grubb, John and Koren Grubb (who stayed late for lots of clean up), Jock and Suzanne Christie, Diane Fiddymont, Sanar Karki, and Don Wachelka.

Ticket sellers Zamira Solari, Jill Nail, Dawn Mayer, Gail Hutchinson, Jenn Adams, Monica and Andrew Pluemer, Jessica Fairchild, Tina Cheplick, Cathy Paul, Luke and Kit Argilla

Kathy and Steve Easley, Jen Langfield, Jen Evan Thrush, Lorraine Ferrarese patiently sold thousands of $1 tickets, answered all the "how much is" and "what can I get for" questions, figured out and passed on the lore of how to use the Square, and kept careful count of the cash.

Sleepy Hollow Tennis Club members were busy all day, with a float in the parade and cheerfully tending the snack bar from opening to closing. Thanks to the support of the club and its president Chris Staskus, and especially to Jay Trimble who took on the responsibility for the staffing all day.

Dinner prep went to warp speed when the kitchen and grill teams arrived. Claudia Gardner, Mark Sarkisian, Paul and Lorraine Ferrarese, and Kira Swaim turned out salads and more for the buffet while Jeff McFarland, Dave Ellis, Ryan Nail, David Baker, and Joe Minutoli fired up the grills and started turning out tri tip, barbecued chicken, hot dogs, and hamburgers, zucchini and portabellas.

Floaters Matt Petrick and Sharon

Adams were utility infielders sometimes asked to play outfield, and they both performed with determination and grace, whether shuttling to and from the buffet, collecting trash, or helping with ticket sales. Bradley Johnson was spotted quietly sweeping out the clubhouse during the pre dinner lull in between his many other jobs and despite the fact that his parents were guests from the east coast.

Clean up with all hands on deck was awesome that night. Tents down, tables put away, trash consolidated and emptied, kitchen and snack bar relatively clean. When the morning crew of Ali Sadat, Paul Ferrarese, and several board members came in, there were mostly the decorations to pack away for another year of red, white, and blue.

Family of three, Sandy (Pfaff), Ben, and Gabe Wilson, attend the 4th of July festivities.

Did you know?

The market has shifted and we are seeing more price reductions. There are now some opportunities for buyers not to compete in sought-after Sleepy Hollow!

Here are the current stats for our neighborhood:

Active Listings: There are three available properties. Two have been on for more than 30 days and one for almost 60.

Solds: There were three sales in June: one sold in seven days; the other two had been on for more than two months!

The takeaway? It's not just location, location, location - it's also price, price, price.

Sleepy Hollow Swim Team Wins Champs

After four months of (sometimes brutal) swim practice, the Sea Lions were ready for Champs on June 29. It was a day full of excitement. The 10&under swam in the morning winning a handful of trophies and giving the team a handy lead. In the afternoon the 11&ups were up and extended the lead for the team to take the Championship Trophy home.

July 4th Fun Run Results

103 runners and walkers completed their chosen events the morning of July 4th. Most registrants did not clearly identify ages, so we are presenting the results a bit differently this year.

We noticed in the list of finishers and their times that many twosomes, threesomes, or whole families finished their events with the same or very close times, and we picture some stiff competitions and others virtually (or actually) holding hands crossing the line.

These pairs or family teams included: Luc and Dawn Mayer; Blair and Erin Hill; Thomas, Thea, and Michael Skaff; Cooper and Damon Blechen; Ian, Joe and Matt Sharp; Zoe, Holly and Brian Landon; Johnny and Sharon Fahy; Jack and John Grubb; Abbey and Meghan Dillon; Abigail, Braelyn, and Greg Rivers; Page and Kate Taplin; Meghan, Katie, and Elle Easley; Cathy Sarkisian and Meghan Jones; Daisley and Matt Kraner; Justin and Cole Taplin; Jake and Jen Gammon; Tom and Jack Gross; Anne-Marie Kostecki and Heidi Oelman; Dave and Pat Grubb; Kristen Barre and Beth Sharp. Bravo.

Top finishers in each running event are listed without age.

1 Mile Finishers under 10 minutes: Nolan Anderson, Kelly Kurtzig, McCoy Dillon, Mason Goebel, Dave Landa, Julius Kusttki, Taylor Fahy, Tina Smith, Andy Kurtzig, Luc Mayer, Dawn Mayer, Maddie Mergenthaler, Logan MacDonald, Blair Hill, Erin Hill.

2 Mile Finishers under 16 minutes: Ian Sharp, Joe Sharp, Matt Sharp, Rick Dillon, Marina McPhail, Rocky Pierson, Charlotte Burch, Jack Grubb, John Grubb.

5k Finishers under 25 minutes: Nicholas Mullen, Dan Borgonovo, Joe Stanzl, Jake Gammon, Jen Gammon, Calvin Arnold, Jack Gross, Tom Gross, Nicole Fish.

Congratulations to all who participated!

Thanks also to John Richard for leadership in making this happen, and to all the cheerers, encouragers, water carriers who also made it possible!

SHHA Informal Meeting Notes, July 11, 2019

7:00 – 8:20 p.m. Scott Hintergardt, Jan Blackford, Spencer Adams, Lorraine Ferrarese.

No resident came to speak at Open Time. We met without a quorum and discussed three items for referral to the SHHA Board.

Scott presented the status of the negotiations with San Domenico, and it was agreed that we should summarize our best and final offer, seek SHHA Board approval for it at the August board meeting, and present it to San Domenico. Jan will summarize our proposal, which includes the willingness to pilot for 12 months a suspension of audits and penalties for weekend trip limits. The SHHA Board will discuss the potential for an overall pilot as an alternative to our proposal. Spencer shared sample results of software that can identify origin and destination of cell phones moving through selected points. This can be done at a relatively low cost and could be useful in cross checking other data, supporting our positions, or assisting with a pilot.

Scott presented the urgency to replace Steve Knox in his clubhouse manager roles of scheduling events/users for the master calendar, coordinating building rentals, managing the janitor and the landscaper, and ordering basic supplies for the facility. Steve has retired and Jan and Scott are sharing this responsibility now. No one is doing the handy man/building superintendent job Steve filled that saved so much money over the years.

Best result would be to find an adult volunteer in the community willing to take on this role until renovation begins. Estimate 5 hours per week on average. Ask for this prominently in the July Bulletin and by separate email and personal outreach if necessary. Also willing to consider, with pay, a young adult or mature teen, available into the fall up to renovation. High school senior, local college student, or older child living at home.

Jan reported an incident that day of pool members consuming alcohol at the pool. Guards are trying to enforce but need help. We will remove the large sign which apparently caused some to think that drinking at the pool is ok, and will post a reminder of the longstanding and published rule of no drinking on the pool premises.

(14. Absolutely no intoxicants (beverages or otherwise) on the SHHA pool premises. Individuals having consumed intoxicants may be denied use of the pool and access to the pool premises at the sole discretion of the lifeguard.)

Checking with other current and former Board members after the meeting confirms that the policy has applied to the entire premises, not only the area inside the pool fence.

Thank You Marin Garden Club for Your Beautification of the Oak Knoll and Irving Islands!

Earlier this year, the MGC was given the opportunity by the Sleepy Hollow Homeowner's Association to tackle their first project — to revitalize a “sleepy” island at the entrance to the Hollow. The Oak Knoll and Irving Beautification Projects are the first island revamps that the MGC have completed. The Marin Garden Club, established by a group of San Anselmo amateur gardeners who can only dream of going pro, was created in 2018 with the simple mission of encouraging the love of gardening.

Tennis Club: July 4th Festivities

A huge "Thank You" to all the wonderful SH tennis club members who volunteered as friendly bartenders at the clubhouse during the July 4th festivities!

Tennis Memberships Available: Attention Sleepy Hollow residents: Did you know that SHHA members can join the Sleepy Hollow Tennis Club for a fraction of what it costs to join other Marin County tennis clubs? Thanks to our wonderful neighbors, San Domenico School, SHTC members and their families have weekend and evening access to the 6 beautifully maintained tennis courts located on the school's campus at the end of Butterfield. If you are interested in joining the club please contact club president, Chris Staskus, cmstaskus@gmail.com. Also check out our website: sleepyhollowtennis.org for more information about the club.

Saturday Morning Drop-in Doubles: With such great weather, Saturday morning drop-in women's and men's doubles play at the San Domenico tennis courts is more popular than ever. Drop in doubles is open to all SHTC members, with players rotating in and out at the end of each set. Play starts at 9am and often continues into the afternoon. A typical Saturday morning has two women's doubles courts and three men's doubles courts actively in play and tennis pro Rob Jessen providing lessons on court 1.

Speaking of Tennis Pros: We are very fortunate to have one of the best teaching tennis pros in Marin, Rob Jessen. Lessons are available to both members and non-members and for players of all skill levels. To inquire about signing up for lessons, email Rob at rjessen@sandomenico.org. You can check out Rob's bio and also schedule a lesson on our website: sleepyhollowtennis.org.

Tennis is really a lifetime sport that can be played and enjoyed by people of any age and ability. It's a great way to stay fit, make friends, spend quality time with your family and have fun! So please check out our Sleepy Hollow Tennis Club.

Administrator Needed: Flexible Way to Help Sleepy Hollow

We need a volunteer to work 5 hours per week on average managing the following:

- Scheduling events in the old clubhouse at the community center
- Rental agreements
- Other events at the community center
- Keeping the calendar current
- Managing the schedules and compensation of the landscaper and janitor
- Ordering and inventory of supplies including paper towels, toilet paper, garbage bags.

A calendar is established. Landscape and janitorial agreements are in place. Vendor for supplies is established. Steve Knox has contributed his time to these tasks for the community for more than 6 years. He will be available to orient the new manager.

Position is needed until renovation of the building begins, as early as November 2019 but potentially later.

If you know of someone who might be interested in doing these things with pay, please refer them. Flexible hours, good resume builder. However, we are hopeful that a volunteer will step forward to meet this need for 4 to 9 months.

Please contact Jan Blackford or Scott Hintergardt through shhapresident@gmail.com. We are sharing these responsibilities now.
